Delhi Township Selects New Police Chief

Delhi Township Trustees recently selected James A. Howarth as Delhi Township Police Chief effective August 13, 2008.

Howarth has been with the Delhi Township Police Department for more than fifteen years beginning as a police officer and steadily progressing through the ranks to his current position of Police Lieutenant. He will assume the position of Chief of Police from John "Satch" Coletta who will retire the day prior after spending 35 years with the Delhi Township Police Department.

Chief Howarth and his wife, Lisa, live in Delhi Township and have two children, Brooklyn and Carson. Chief Howarth has earned a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from Delta State University in Cleveland, Mississippi, a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from Xavier University and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Northern Kentucky University.
