

Lt. Joseph Macaluso

Joe Macaluso was hired on April 13, 1994. In his 28 years on the force with the Delhi Township Police Department, he has served as a Patrol Officer, Patrol Corporal, Patrol Sergeant before being promoted to his current position, Lieutenant-Division Commander of Investigations.

He was promoted to Lieutenant of Investigations in 2008, and since then he has received several letters of appreciation and has won the Thomas R. Oberschmidt award for his work with sexual assault and domestic violence victims. He was also honored to be American Legion's Hamilton County Law Officer of the Year in 2013, and was the 4th District of Ohio Law Officer of the Year in 2013.

Lieutenant Macaluso has served as the Department's TAC (Terminal Agency Coordinator). The TAC ensures compliance policies and is a liaison between the agency and State. Lieutenant Macaluso has an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice and is also a graduate of the FBI National Academy (Session 278). He loves spending time with his family and friends and enjoys watching sports.