Verve Fit Grand Opening Celebration

Delhi Township elected officials and staff, and the Delhi Business Association, attended the grand opening of Verve Fit on Wednesday, April 10, 2019. The event was kicked off with a ribbon cutting and presentation of a certificate to recognize the new business on their accomplishments and welcome them to the community.

“We are excited to have a business like Verve Fit come to Delhi Township as it gives our residents another great option to maintain or improve their healthy lifestyles! The energy and excitement you see from the staff and patrons showcases the importance of having a business like Verve Fit in our community,” said Greg DeLong.

The new fitness facility, which officially opened on December 15, 2018, is staffed by expert personal trainers and sports nutritionists. In addition to cardio equipment and weights, members also have access to tanning beds and a variety of fitness classes.

Verve Fit is located at 5031 Delhi Pike. The facility is open to its members 24/7 and is staffed on Mondays through Fridays from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m., and on Saturdays and Sundays from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.
